

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

HOMELAND SECURITY: ENGAGING THE COMMUNITY

October 5-6, 2004

Sandy City Hall
10000 Centennial Parkway
Sandy, UT 84070

Sponsored By:

- Western Community Policing Center
- Utah Commission on Volunteers/Utah Citizen Corps
- Sandy City Citizen Corps Council
- Utah's State Advisory Council/WCPC

Target Audience: Community, Public Safety Professionals, Citizen Corps Councils, First Responders, CERT, Government Agencies, Crime Prevention practitioners, Nonprofits, Volunteers, Schools, Criminal Justice System Personnel, anyone interested in engaging in partnerships with others to create vigilant, resilient, and prepared communities.

Description: This course provides a framework for community and public safety leaders to work together to assist community groups to prepare for terrorist and all hazards events. Community oriented policing principles as well as civil defense techniques are used to address preparedness issues at the community level. Topics include: the nature and fear of terrorism, defining homeland security, developing community groups, ethics and homeland security, problem solving strategies, and partnership building. Participants will learn to design an action plan for their respective communities. It is preferred that communities attend as teams.

Cost: Meals and lodging are the responsibility of attendees.

WCPC: The Western Community Policing Center (WCPC) is a six-state partnership of community, law enforcement, and public agencies focused on improving the interaction between communities, law enforcement and local government utilizing the principles of community oriented policing to prevent crime and improve livability. WCPC is located on the campus of Western Oregon University, its fiduciary agent, and works with criminal justice agencies, emergency management, social service, and community organizations in Alaska, Hawaii, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Indian Country.
